

No 2056/VCS/18
Dt.: 28.03.2018

In order to resolve the certain controversies arisen due to academic restructuring, it is proposed that the School of Ambedkar Studies and School of Social Sciences is merged and now will be known as School of Ambedkar Studies for Social Sciences. The following departments will come under the School of Ambedkar Studies for Social Sciences:

1. Sociology
2. Public Administration
3. History
4. Political Science

Further, the Department of Human Rights will remain under the School of Legal Studies

This is in anticipation of approval of various statutory bodies of the University.
